Lakeshore is proud to present the

What is PlayBright®? PlayBright® is an educational program that combines the most current research in early brain development with fun, easy activities and age-appropriate materials!

Who developed PlayBright®? PlayBright® was developed by Children's Home Society of Washington (CHSW), a nonprofit with a 112-year history of serving children and families.

How did Lakeshore get involved? CHSW & Lakeshore partnered to develop the PlayBright® Activity Kits to complement the PlayBright® Early Learning System. With field-tested practices that meet state & national standards, PlayBright® books, combined with these kits, provide quality, interactive play experiences that promote healthy brain growth in key development areas.

Our comprehensive kit covers key milestones in four main areas of development!

Feeling & Connecting
Social and Emotional Development

Listening & Talking
Language and Preliteracy Development

Sensing & Moving
Gross and Fine Motor Development

Thinking & Remembering
Cognitive and Memory Development

With over 100 components, this comprehensive kit provides caregivers with an easy-to-use system for guiding children through each stage of early development...while nurturing the whole child. Included you will find all of the toys and materials described in the PlayBright® Guidebooks (sold separately)—everything from board books & CDs to sand toys & blocks—plus a detailed guide that links the kit materials to developmental milestones and engaging activities.
